FOUNDATION: For students with no previous experience of yoga. The course is designed to provide an introduction to the basic postures and principles of Iyengar yoga.

BEGINNERS: Suitable for beginner students and those with less than 2 years' experience. A greater range of basic postures, including inverted poses such as shoulder stand and headstand, when you are ready. These classes will build strength and flexibility to prepare you for the next level.

GENERAL: A wider range of postures, suitable for students with more than 2 years' experience. Time spent in the postures will be increased to further develop stamina and strength.

INTERMEDIATE: Alongside the basic postures, a more demanding and complex range of postures. Suitable for those with at least three years' consistent attendance of Iyengar yoga classes, who practise at home and are able to do a steady head balance for at least 5 minutes.
